ANNEXURE 'A'

Before Shri S.S. Kanwar, Presiding Officer, Labour Court Industries Tribunal Himachal Pradesh, Shimla

Case No. 11/84

Shri Mela Ram .. Petitioner.

Versus

M/s Upkar Industries, Barotiwala, Solan. Respondent.

S/Shri T.R. Bhardwaj and Kartar Singh for the petitioner.

None for the respondent.

AWARD

Mela Ram, petitioner, workman was employed by the respondent management as a turner on the consolidated wages of Rs. 425/-per month w.e.f. 13-2-1981 vide letter Ex.P. 1. He was promoted as a Supervisor w.e.f. 1-6-1982 vide letter Ex. P-2. As a Supervisor he is entitled to Rs. 600/-per month as consolidated emoluments. His services have been terminated vide Ex. P-3 w.e.f. 18-2-1983.

The workman raised an Industrial Dispute, which has been referred to this Court vide notification No. 8-15/80-Sharam-II, dated 4-2-1982.

The following questions have been referred to this Court:—

"Whether the termination of services of Shri Mela Ram, Supervisor by the respondent management is in accordance with law and rule. If not, to what relief and what amount, if any, the workman is entitled to."

Notice of the reference were sent to both the parties. The workman has appeared and filed a claim petition, wherein he has challenged the termination of his services being governed by the rule provided in the Standing orders.

The respondent management could not be served on various dates and this has caused the delay in answering this reference. On 19-2-1985 one Shri Joginder Singh Bawa Authorised Representative of the respondent management appeared in this Court and obtained the date for the settlement of this dispute outside the Court. This case was adjourned to 10-3-1985. The workman appeared and none appeared for the respondent and ex-parte proceedings were taken against the respondent. This case was again adjourned to 7-4-1985 and for today also, but none has appeared for the respondent management. I have recorded the ex-parte evidence.

In support of the claim and the allegations made by him in this claim petition, Shri Mela Ram workman has appear as PW-1 and has substantiated the allegations and his claim. According to him, he joined as a turner on a consolidated pay of Rs. 425/- per month. He was promoted w.e.f. 6-1-1982 as Supervisor on consolidated emoluments of Rs. 600/- per month. Order of appointment and order of promotion is Ex.P-1 and P-2 respectively. He has further stated that his services have been terminated vide order Ex.P-3. He has also stated that the respondent's management pressurised him to submit voluntarily resignation, but he did not oblige and there after his services were terminated. He has emphasized that no enquiry has been held nor any charges have been framed against him.

In view of the ex-parte evidence, I find no reason not to accept the claim of the petitioner workman. The respondent management has not been able to file the reply of claim petition, justifying the termination of services of the petitioner. In view of the ex-parte evidence, I conclude that the services of the petitioner workman has been terminated illegally and without following the established principle of natural justice. The termination of service of the petitioner is, therefore, illegal. The order of termination of services Ex-P-3, dated 18-2-1983 is quashed and set-aside. The result is that the petitioner is deemed to be in the services of the respondent management as a supervisor and is entitled to get consolidated emoluments of Rs. 600/- per month. He is entitled to get his back wages and other service benefits inspite of this termination order P-3. The respondent management will pay him all the back wages within two months of the making of this award.

The petitioner is also allowed Rs. 200/- as costs of these proceedings. The costs will be paid by the respondent management at the time of making payments of his back wages.

The petitioner will report for duty w.e.f. 1-6-1985. The respondent management will pay his regular wages on or before 10th of every subsequent month i.e., the wages of June, 1985 will be paid on or before 10th July, 1985. The copy of this award be given to the petitioner and respondent free of costs.

S. S. KANWAR,
Presiding Officer.

ANNEXURE-B

Before Shri S.S. Kanwar, Presiding Officer, Labour Court,
Himachal Pradesh at Labour Commissioner's Office,
Shimla-171002

Case No. 675/85

Shri Sampuran Singh .. Petitioner.

Versus

M/s Vee Zee Engineering Corporation.

Parwanoo .. Respondent.

Shri Sampuran Singh, Petitioner in person with Shri Abhay Singh, AR of the respondent.

None for the respondent.

AWARD

Shri Sampuran Singh was employed by the respondent management as a maintenance mechanic on 13-9-1981. His services were terminated on 1-7-1984 vide order EX P-1. He was drawing Rs. 1500/- (Consolidated) P.M. as wages. Before the termination of his services, no notice was served on him nor any enquiry was held nor any show cause notice was issued to him. He raised a demand and his case was enquired into and in due course went to the Conciliation Officer. The respondent Management did not join conciliation proceedings as well. The dispute between the workman and the respondent management has been referred to this court vide Notification, dated 11-10-1985. The following question has been raised:—

“Whether the termination of services of Shri Sampuran Singh, ex-maintenance mechanic of M/s Vee Zee Engineering Corporation, Parwanoo, District Solan is in order. If not, what relief and amount of compensation, Shri Sampuran Singh is entitled to?”

After the receipt of this reference, notices to the parties had been issued. The respondent management had been served and one of the peons appeared on 8-12-1985, at Parwanoo and the next date was intimated to him. No body has appeared for the respondent management thereafter. Ex-parte proceedings were ordered to be taken against respondent management on 22-1-1986, with the directions that a notice of ex-parte proceedings be issued to the respondent management. Another notice to the same effect was also issued on 23-2-1986. In spite of this, the respondent management has not put in appearance. I have recorded ex-parte proceedings.

Shri Sampuran Singh, claimant has appeared as PW-1 and has substantiated his claim and the allegations made by him in his petition. According to him, EX P-1 is the only notice which he had received from the respondent management. This notice mentions about earlier notice being sent to Sampuran Singh but Shri Sampuran Singh, as PW-1 has denied having received such a notice. In EX P-1, it is mentioned that because of the failings of a workman, a low output has resulted. Disciplinary action has been taken against the petitioner without giving him any chance to defend himself. From the evidence on record, which is not rebutted it can be safely concluded that the services of the petitioner have been terminated and penalty has been imposed on him without giving him opportunity to explain his position and to defend himself.

At the time of termination of his services, the wages for the notice period had not been tendered or paid to the workman. The falsity of the notice, EX P-1 is apparent from the perusal of notice, EX P-1 itself. It is mentioned that a cheque for Rs. is enclosed with the notice. Even the cheque amount has not been mentioned in this notice and the space has been left blank after writing, “Cheque for Rs.”.

From the evidence on record, it is clear that the services of the petitioner have been illegally terminated and he has been penalised for no fault of his and without giving him opportunity to defend himself.

From the ex-parte evidence, a prima facie case is made out by the petitioner. The reference made to this court is answered in the affirmative. I have no hesitation to hold that the services of the petitioner have been terminated by the respondent management illegally and without following the known procedure for the termination of services of the workman.

The petitioner is entitled to re-instatement w.e.f. 1-7-84. He will be deemed to be in the continuous service and the termination vide EX P-1 is of no consequence. He is entitled to all the wages w.e.f. 1-7-1984 till he is re-instated and allowed to join his work as a maintenance mechanic. He will draw his wages as before at the rate of Rs. 1500/- P.M. consolidated w.e.f. 1-7-1984 till to-date and at the same rate from 30-3-1986 till he is allowed to join his duty on the same post and at the same wages by the respondent management.

The petitioner will report for duty immediately after this award is published in the Rajpatra. The copy of this award be sent to the Government for being published in the Rajpatra at the earliest. The respondent management will also pay the cost of these proceedings to the petitioner and these costs are assessed at Rs. 200/-. Advance copy of this award may also be made available to the petitioner free of cost.

S.S. KANWAR,
Presiding Officer.
